

Assistive Technology Project Request Form

CanAssist at the University of Victoria is dedicated to developing technologies, programs and services for people with disabilities (www.canassist.ca). One of the goals of our assistive technology program is to increase the independence, health and well being of those with special needs. It is also our great pleasure to be able to assist in the development of a device or technology that will meet each client's unique circumstances.

Please complete this form. The CanAssist team will consider all requests submitted. However, we reserve the right to decline any project request at our sole discretion.

*Should you have any questions about this form please do not hesitate to directly contact the CanAssist Client Relations Coordinator: Megan Yon, 250-853-3874, myon@uvic.ca

Please note that CanAssist wants to help as many people with special needs as possible.

However, given our limited resources and the increasing demand for our assistive technology services, we are usually able to undertake only one project per individual or family each year – though this depends on the complexity and scope of the project. In exceptional circumstances or as our resources allow, we will consider more than one request per family in a year.

Please contact our Client Relations Coordinator to discuss your situation. Thank you for your understanding.
